

ERIN COBURN

Erin Coburn is a force to be reckoned with. Since a young age, she's captivated her audiences with her prowess on guitar, powerful vocals, and unique blend of rock and blues, bringing it all into the 21st century.

Those that attend Erin's live shows describe her as having a mesmerizing stage presence with her intricate arrangements and dynamic lyrics. She commands her band with effortless confidence while giving the audience something unexpected, like shredding her electric ukulele during a hypnotizing solo. It's hard to pigeon-hole Erin's style of music into one genre, which makes her music all the more compelling. It's no wonder she's seen her music placed on the Top 100 on the Americana Radio Charts.

Erin's first two original albums, Chaos Before Conformity and Queen of Nothing, showed more of her blues roots with young unbridled creativity. With her latest release, 'Out From Under' (November 8th, 2019) this Kentucky native captures her natural progression to a more mature sound with edgier lyrics, searing guitar solos, and a dash of humor.

Some of Erin's accomplishments include:

- › Performed with Grammy Award winning artists in Nashville
- › Plays festivals and venues across the U.S. including, Milwaukee Summerfest and King Biscuit Blues Festival
- › 2017 Cincinnati Entertainment Awards nominee for Best Blues Artist
- › 2018 Josie Awards nominee for "Young Adult Artist of the Year"
- › Opened shows for The Marcus King Band, The Accidentals, Larry McCray, Thornetta Davis, and Three Dog Night

"I met her at the Pinetop Perkins Foundation workshops and I knew she was very talented but her album knocks me out!" —Bob Margolin

"She can lay back or reeve up while pulling fine blues-rock sounds and rhythms out of her electric guitar or electric ukulele. Also, she can go authentically country and tastefully pop. Her effortless singing is rangy—she pulls her vocal triggers at will."

—Zeno Songbird, Knoxville Music Warehouse

"Erin Coburn is a name you will want to remember. It will be like a freight train blazing down the rail seeing where this young lady goes musically."

—Moose Gronholm, CincyMusic.com
